Licensing and state availability

Version 1, published 2026-10-08. Source: https://afgfinance.app/licensing

We offer retail installment contracts only in states where we hold the license or registration that state requires. The states where we accept applications today, and our license and registration numbers, are listed on this page.

How our contracts work

When you buy a storage building, carport, or other goods from a participating dealer, the dealer can offer you a retail installment contract to pay for it over time. If you sign the contract, the dealer assigns it to us. We then hold the contract, collect your payments, and answer your questions about it.

The fees that apply in each state come from that state's rules. See Rates and fees for the current amounts.

Texas

In Texas, we are registered with the Office of Consumer Credit Commissioner (OCCC), which enforces Texas consumer credit laws that apply to your contract.

> Notice to holders of consumer credit contracts
> NOTICE: ANY HOLDER OF THIS CONSUMER CREDIT CONTRACT IS SUBJECT TO ALL CLAIMS AND DEFENSES WHICH THE DEBTOR COULD ASSERT AGAINST THE SELLER OF GOODS OR SERVICES OBTAINED PURSUANT HERETO OR WITH THE PROCEEDS HEREOF. RECOVERY HEREUNDER BY THE DEBTOR SHALL NOT EXCEED AMOUNTS PAID BY THE DEBTOR HEREUNDER.

The holder notice above is part of every consumer contract we hold. In plain terms: if you have a valid claim or defense against the dealer about the goods you bought, you can raise it against us too. What you can recover from us is limited to the amount you have paid under the contract.
